First Graders Know How to Speak French

"Comment allez-vous aujourd'hui?" is being asked by the kindergarten and first grade of Horace Mann from 1:00 to 1:30 p. m. daily.

Speaking only French, Lilli Glynos uses mimic, audio-visual aids and repetition to teach vocabulary, conversation, games, and French songs. If one does not know the story of "Les Trois Petit Cochons" or "Le Petit Chaperon Rouge," let him ask a first-grader.

"These children will always like France and the French language," says Lilli. "And furthermore," she adds, "I believe the teaching of language to the children does foster better relations between nations."

A Day to Remember . . .

April 15 of this year is an important day for the campus. For on that day, the parents of the students will make their annual pilgrimage to the College to observe and to evaluate the work which their children as college students are doing.

Many mothers and fathers are gladly making some sacrifices that their children may attend college. Without the support and interest of them, a college education would be impossible for many deserving students. On Parents Day, we will have an opportunity to show our appreciation by bringing our parents to the campus, thus giving them an opportunity to see first hand what we are learning in the classrooms and an opportunity for them to meet and talk with our professors.

We want these parents to come to our College and be able to go away with an understanding of why we are here and what we are accomplishing here. April 15 will be a day in which we can be proud—proud of our parents and proud of our College.

Mom and Dad

Mom and Dad.

Just seeing these three words immediately puts us in a pleasant frame of mind.

By nature, parents have one ultimate goal . . . to give their children the best possible.

By nature . . . we accept.

I wonder though how many of us are guilty of this natural acceptance without appreciation.

Most of us are here because of our parents' sacrifices, made without hesitation or misgiving and without expectations of visible rewards.

Our parents owe us nothing . . . the opportunity for a college education isn't just coming to us.

Girls, before we simply must have that darling Easter outfit complete with that chic chapeau, look at Mom's wardrobe. Since we started to college, hasn't most of the clothes budget come our way?

"Dad, a car is a college essential for fellows. You wouldn't want me to develop an inferiority complex." Before going into this sales talk, notice those lines in Dad's face. He didn't get them playing golf, you know.

No, these are symbols of their personal sacrifices for us.

Let's consider Mom and Dad for a change.

They're pretty important people, you know.

They're Talking About . . .

A big name band . . . the ball is rolling to get a big name band here on the campus for an all school spring dance . . . Sure would be grand to dance to the music of Les Brown, Ray Anthony, Ralph Marterie or any other such orchestra, it will take a lot of work to swing this deal . . . we're hoping everyone will pull for it, and make it a reality.

The spring thaw has had both its advantage and disadvantages. While some have already shed their coats and now run around in shirt sleeves, the warm weather has also brought some grief. For instance, the roads have suffered immensely. Behind the Quads, a jeep would have trouble making it through if it fell into the ruts, which are knee-high to a tall giraffe . . .

A number of the streets up town aren't any "too smooth."

Ten o'clock break . . . The ten o'clock coffee break in the Bearcat Den features hot coffee, hot rolls, hot music, and hot pitch games . . . a hot time for everyone . . . tough for those who have ten o'clock classes.

Water shortage? Should there suddenly be a water shortage here on the campus, it might be traced back to the number of cars which have been washed recently . . . takes a lot of that H₂O to get a winter's accumulation off.

Congrats to the select few who made the honor roll and "Who's Who." It proves that all your work was not in vain . . . keep up the fine work.

Faculty Notes

Mr. Gilbert Whitney, vocal instructor at the College, went to Hamburg, Iowa, Friday, March 11, to act as director of the Fremont County Music Festival. This festival included all schools of that county.

Saturday, March 12, he acted as the choral director of the Oregon Music Festival.

Mr. R. T. Wright, of the agriculture department, was at Warrensburg Thursday and Friday, March 10 and 11, at a meeting of non-land grant colleges of agriculture.

Mr. Daniel E. Coffey, a new member of the College faculty this semester, has become a familiar sight to students in mathematics lecture rooms. He is here during the absence of Mr. William A. Lafferty during the spring semester.

Before he came here, Mr. Coffey was teaching at Lawrence Institute of Technology in Detroit, Michigan. He also owns a farm there.

While he is on leave from the College faculty, Mr. Lafferty is attending Columbia University in New York and is working toward his doctor's degree. He plans to be back on the campus for the fall of 1955.

His family is remaining in Maryville, and his son, Bob, is completing his sophomore year in college here.

A recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Krapf has been Mrs. Krapf's sister, a resident of Washington, D. C., who was driving near this area on business and decided to include Maryville.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibler

"Les see—I got 'INCOMPLETE' in math 215, WITHDRAWN in English II, CONDITIONAL in social studies, and a 'D' in PHYS ED—Boy! Thank goodness I didn't flunk anything this term."

Barber Shop Quartet Organizes on Campus

Harmony supplied by the Mellow-modes, a modern barbershop quartet, was part of the program at the recent Polio Benefit Dance.

That was their first public appearance. They sang "Coney Island Baby," "Mister Moon," "If My Wife Could See Me Now," and "Shine on Me." Don Herren is first tenor; Charles Hagee, second tenor; Jack Hill, baritone; and Max Bartram, bass. Art Buckingham is manager and pianist.

The Mellow-modes started singing together in January. They practice on their own time, usually twice a week. All the quartet members are music majors.

oratory and trials; and Socrates' cell.

Sets were designed, constructed, and painted by Elbert Blair, Geraldine Cooley, Walt Hopkins, Miles Stucker, Larry Ramsey, and Bob Wilson, under the supervision of Mr. Fulson, with lighting by Robert Lister. Costumes are being made by Mrs. Theodore Palmer.

Members of the acting class, Carole Kay Trotter, Marjorie Ann Cannon, Geraldine Cooley, Carolyn Ann Denny, Kaye Ferguson, William D. Franklin, Earl LeRoy Gebhardt, Larry Ramsay, Miles M. Stucker, Mrs. Bonnie June Vaughn, James Warner, and Roger Lee Wayman compose the make-up committee.

Organ music for the production will be provided by Mr. Gerard Krapf, of the music department. Advertising posters for the play have been made by the Horace Mann Art Class under the supervision of Mr. Charles L. Johnson.

John Chapman chooses "Barefoot in Athens" as one of the best ten plays of the 1951-52 season on Broadway. This is Maxwell Anderson's seventeenth Best Play.

THE STROLLER

Stroll around the campus with the Stroller.

Yellow crocus, snow drops, and blossoming pussy willows announce spring at the home of President and Mrs. J. W. Jones.

The Ad building stands with open eyes and open mouths these warm days. Lavender hyacinth lends its beauty to the registrar's office, while the whole place buzzes with the anticipation of Parents Day.

Which reminds the Stroller: Please punch out of Mom and Pop. Invite them up and show them off Parents Day. They'll be just as proud of you as you are of them.

Dropping some of its ping pong and cue popularity to those wide open space activities, the Snack Bar's cool drinks and lush ice cream compensate the loss.

Too, the Union lounge divans and magazines offer no competition to the invigorating air and sunshine of the outdoor campus.

Major league enthusiasm is displayed by the old bat and ball gang over in the direction of the Quad. Tim Milner and Dave Surrey, 1968 Bearcat hopefuls, rarely miss an afternoon's workout on the cinders.

"Drag out the old picnic hamper and head for the hills" seems the most popular invitation.

Dr. Frank Grube, racket in hand, can be seen heading in the direction of the tennis courts after the day's classes.

From the auditorium, Mr. Ralph Fulson and the cast are in full swing rehearsals for the next production, "Barefoot in Athens."

"It's a fact," states the Stroller; "you really aren't living if this weather has no effect on you."

Industrial Arts Groups Make Annual Visits To Kansas City Firms

Two groups of the Industrial Arts Club, consisting of 67 majors or engineers in their respective fields, made their annual inspection trips recently to several Kansas City industries.

Group one went Tuesday, March 1, to explore the workings of the Ford Motor Assembly Plant, and group two made an investigation of the General Motors Assembly Plant, Thursday March 3.

Both groups visited the Automobile Show, then visited at the new modern building of the Frank Paxton Lumber Company. This construction is a large and roomy building supported by huge trusses of laminated lumber. The ground floor is 100 feet wide, 400 feet long, and supports these trusses which are 40 feet high. The front of this building has an attractive face of weather boarding of Philippine mahogany.

Besides the space for the operation within the finishing department, there is abundance of storage space for millions of board feet since the company is the largest importer of foreign lumber in the world.

Free luncheon provided by this lumber company was a highlight of the trip.

M CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

At a recent meeting the "M" Club elected the following officers: Jack Spence, president; Ric Tilton, vice president; Fred Maher, secretary; Weldon Dowden, treasurer; Ron O'Dell, publicity chairman; Jerry Davis, assistant publicity chairman; and John Schulze, sergeant at arms.

Sigma Sigmas

Tri-Sigma sorority held its regular meeting, March 8, in the chapter room. Dates which will need to be kept in mind for the future are April 21, Founders Day banquet at the Union; and April 29, the spring formal at the Country Club.

Following a short business meeting, the formal pledging ceremony was held for Shirley Dieterich and Virginia Watkins, who are two new Tri-Sigma pledges for the second semester. The sorority is once more back to a total membership of 50 actives and pledges.

Delta Sigmas

Members of the Delta sorority were happy to see the many new faces in the chapter room on March 8, namely, Mary Rolf, Lura Stafford, Shirley Moore, Donna Ruoff, Joyce Lash, Ruth Crane, Margaret Robinson, and Barbara Boyd. The evening was spent in getting acquainted, making name cards for the province meeting, and taking advantage of the coffee and cookies that were served.

If any of you, Deltas have any ability at playing volleyball, you might put it to use on Wednesday evening at the gym.

Deltas are looking forward to going to the province meeting at Warrensburg this week.

Congratulations to Verla Mosman and Mary Griffin who became active on March 15.

Independent Club

At a recent meeting of the Independent Club, the following people were nominated for offices: President—Dick Phillips, Fred Whitford; vice-president—Veldeva Cochran, Edwin Herde; secretary—Wanda David, Shirley Woodring, Peggy Jo Guthrie; treasurer—Betty Cooksey, Naomi Shipley, Don Miller, Charlene Steiner; historian—Frank Garey; Gloria McKonkey, Anna Roberts, Norma Grantier. Sigma Tau Gamma Attend the St. Patrick's Dance

Tau pledges this semester beginning to get the feel of things are Ron Bradley, L. D. Young, Merle Sorenson, Jim Maret, and Don Pierpoint. Good to see one of our Tau alumni on leave with the U. S. Marines, George Coulter, back visiting on the campus.

Glad to see that the spring weather has brought out some of our better golfers, Tom Bishop and Curt Thomas, to loosen up for the coming season. Good luck in the Miami Open.

Henry Southard is the checker champ of the Tau Quad. He seems to be back in shape from his good rest on the canvas. "Your jump, canvas-back."

Also, Bob (Tony Curtis) Pumphrey and his cream shampoo hair style. "Quit fighting 'em off Bob." ... female flies which Dick Tracy's Rug Head passed on, that is.

'Twas a good meal we had the other night. Thank you, Mr. Bearcat; come more often.

The Billy Graham movie "Olivetown U.S.A." was very good. Movies of that type would provide very good assemblies for the future.

Alpha Sigmas

Alpha Sigma Alpha alumnae gave a banquet in honor of pledges and actives, March 8, at the Dream Kitchen.

The St. Patrick's Day theme was carried out as only Mrs. F. M. Townsend knows how. Green and gold were used both as a representative of St. Patrick's Day and the colors of the alumnae.

Tables were illumined by green candles in glass candle holders tied with green bows and topped by a gold flame. Irish hats with gold bands added to the bouquets of green dyed carnations and gold shamrocks. Wooden snakes also added to the originality of the decorations along with shamrock place cards.

Alumnae who attended were Mrs. Luther Belcher, Mrs. Bill Wells, Mrs. Hobart Quinn, Mrs. Harold Hull, Mrs. Bill Ward, Mrs. Robert Geist, Mrs. J. R. Gregory, Mrs. Marvin Lyle, Mrs. F. M. Townsend, Mrs. Ernest Pugh, Mrs. Clun Price, Mrs. John Kurtz, Mrs. Eugene Appleby, Mrs. Marjorie Person, Mrs. John Mauzey, Mrs. Jack Otte, Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mrs. Albert Kuchs, Mrs.

You're all invited! Let's have a big showing of "the wearin' of the green" at the St. Patrick's Day Dance which is to be held at Residence Hall on March 17, 7:30 to 10:00 p. m. Put on your shamrock and come because there is going to be dancing, a program, and refreshments.

"Oh, the music in the air An' the joy that's everywhere—
Shure, the blue vault o' heaven is wan grand triumphal arch,
An' the earth below is gay wid its tender green the—day,
Fur the whole world is Irish on the 17th o' March!"—Daly.

Yes, March 17, observed from earliest times, expresses the patriotism of Irishmen wherever they may be. It is the anniversary of Ireland's patron saint and is a gala event to all sons of the Emerald Isle.

Green is the color for the day, which is significant of undying gratitude to St. Patrick's memory. The shamrock is worn everywhere to commemorate its use by him as symbolic of the Trinity.

Even in our country great parades and dances are held in such cities at New York, Boston, Chicago, and San Francisco. Let's go along with the rest of the world too. All of you lads and lassies come to help celebrate at this St. Pat's shindig.

Weldon Whan, and Mrs. Will Hauck.

Actives and pledges attending were Annie Lou Cowan, Pat Cooper, Janet McClard, Geraldine Struck, Carole Kaye Trotter, Betty Nazarine, Frances Cross, Evelyn Hillman, Pat Adams, Kaye Ferguson, Nancy Kariger, Nancy Rainey, Bettebelle Pitts, Jeanne Goodson, Beverly Murphy, Veda Whitehill, Veda Whitehill, Marilyn McKern, Tamara Kennedy, Charlene Olson, Katy Nicholas, Carol Gamble, Elaine Schroeder, Carol Bressler, Norma Long, Beverly Blohm, Margaret Young, Vivian Head, Ann Schilling, Judy Cross, and Judy Beemer.

F. T. A.

Members of the F. T. A. met in the Lakeview Room, March 9. This wonderful spring weather has really set the field trip committee into action. April 29th is the big day for the trip off campus to several high schools in the area. A well rounded program to encourage high school seniors on to college is the purpose of the trip to show a small sample of college and college life by providing a program which includes representatives of several campus organizations, musical numbers and a discussion with the seniors.

Dr. Leon Miller led a discussion on obtaining a teaching position. He presented some very interesting statistics about salary and tenure in several states.

F. T. A. will hold its next meeting on March 23. Let's see if all members can be present at the last four meetings of the year. Some good programs are lined up.

S. C. A.

Student Christian Association had for its regularly scheduled meeting on March 2, a film, "One God—the Ways We Worship Him."

Election of officers was held before the picture was shown. The new officers for next year are Ted Reed, president; Darlene Coleman, vice-president; Wanda Kingsolver, secretary; Edwin Herde, treasurer; and Anna Roberts, reporter. These new officers will be installed on May 2.

SCA's next meeting is an exchange meeting with the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A. from Tarkio College in the Union at 7:00 p. m., on Thursday, March 17. The program will be presented by the Tarkio group. New members and visitors welcome.

Tommy Teke says

The new "Mellowmoods" quartet, consisting of Max Bartram, Don Herren, Charles Hagee, and Jack Hill sang at the Rotary dinner Monday night. Jack, the TEKE contribution to the quartet, holds down the baritone position.

Carol Tilton, wife of "Rickey Raine," complains of being sorely neglected. With Ric being pledge master, out for track, going to school and working besides, Carol never sees him anymore.

Larry Motsinger, TEKE pledge, is now training to be a driver with Jimmie Lynch's Death Dodgers. He practices every Saturday night on Guerrier Hill in Atchison.

Jack Cole's mind is "Back Home in Indiana." Tommie Teke's mind is in the sack and that is where the rest of him is going. Quiet, please!

From Other Campuses

Cape Girardeau — The speech department is probing into the possibility of launching an intensive program of theatre training for the summer term, which would correspond to the well known summer stock theatre.

Ono Monachino, Bearcat post man, gained the number eight position with a 13.9 point game average.

Three seniors and two juniors, with a total 1699 points scored this season captured the spots on the MIAA first team.

Second team selection is a six man team with Daryl Flint and Ono Monachino, both Bearcats, tying for a position on the team.

Jack Beck of Kirksville and Ray Rippelmeyer of Cape Girardeau were the unanimous choices of the coaches for the first team. In recognition of this they have been selected as co-captains of this year's all-conference team.

Competition in the intramural contest will be keen. B & W Sport- ing Goods Co. is offering a com- plete set of table tennis equipment to the winner of the tournament.

In the co-recreational matches doubles will be composed of boy-girl combinations.

Co-recreational volleyball action starts tonight with the first round of the tournament. Teams consist of four boys and four girls.

Bowling is creating a great deal of enthusiasm in co-recreation ac- tivities.

Bowling teams are being formed by sororities, fraternities, bowling classes, and other campus organiza- tions. Action will take place at the Nodaway Lanes on Monday after- noons from 4 to 6 p. m.

In an arrangement with the manager of the bowling alley, stu- dents can bowl every Monday after- noon at the rate of 25c a line, shoes included.

As this is a saving of 25c per line, bowling enthusiasts should contact Dr. Peterson. Bowlers are not re- quired to belong to any specific or- ganization.

Paul Clark and Charlie Adair are working hard to get that tennis game in shape. They look very sharp in early drills. Newcomer Dick Phillips will add strength to the team.

All you prospective golfers had better take to the fairways. Places on the golf team are wide open.

Tennis and golf are two sports that need to be built up. Letters for sweaters will be given to deserving players, which should be an added incentive for more boys to go out for the two teams. See coaches Grube and Gregory for more informa- tion.

The conference indoor track meet is this Saturday night in Columbia. The team is expected to make a much better show- ing than last year.

Swimming pool and recreation facilities are open on Satur- day from 2 to 4, which provides a good afternoon of fun. Quite a few people are taking part in this Saturday afternoon rec time and are having a great time. So get down there if you haven't been before.

Attention "M" Club members. There is to be a very import- ant meeting tonight at 7 p. m. in the gym. This meeting should have 100 per cent attendance.
